There seems no doubt of the success of the entire Democratic ticket for councilmen today. The people are not ready to try a change of parties in Hopkinsville.

Mr McCreary's election will mean much to Kentucky. The success of his opponent would be a public calamity.

Every Democratic hope in State and as ion depends upon the result today. Give one hour to your party and victory is certain.

The Socialist candidate in Western Kentucky will help McCreary by dividing a vote that would otherwise go solidly for O'Rear.

TOO MANY BOOKS.

Barnaby Rich, in his preface to "A New Description of Ireland," published in 1600, writes:

"One of the diseases of this age is the multitude of books, that doth so overcharge the world that it is not able to digest the abundance of idle matter that is every day hatched and brought into the world, that are as divers in their forms as their authors are in their faces. It is but a thriftless and thankless occupation. this writing of books. A man were better to sit singing in a cobbler's shop, for his pay is certainly a penny a patch! But a book writer, if he gets sometimes a few commendations of the judicious, he shall be sure to reap a thousand reproaches of the malicious!"

CAMPHOR FOR A COLD.

In its early stages an acute cold may be avoided by use of camphor. If the chest seems "tight" rub it thoroughly with equal parts of sweet oil and camphor, and wear a compress during the night of flannel saturated with the mixture, heated and covered with dry flannel. Three or four drops of camphor in a glass of ably short time and I give Doan's hot water, taken at night, is excellent. If the throat is a little sore use a gargle of ten drops of camphor to a tablespoonful of water, being careful not to swallow this. Rubbing the nose with sweet oil and camphor and inhaling the fumes of the latter will help matters when the head has a sensation of fullness.
